

FICPA Wraps Up Another Successful Health Care Industry Conference

Few professions are as evolving as healthcare. Regulatory and legislative changes contribute to the industry's thirst for current information. The 2019 Florida Institute of CPAs Health Care Industry Conference, held at the Caribe Royale Resort Suites in Orlando on April 25 and 26, 2019, brought together experts in the field providing the latest data, resources and insights to keep healthcare professional at the top of their game. Faculty included Jana Kolarik, Clinnie F. Biggs Jr., Amanda Brady, CPA, MBA, Jaime Caldwell, Monica R. Chmielewski, Fraser Cobbe, Kirk P. Cornack, CPA, Lynda M. Dennis, CGFO, PhD, Aurelio M. Fernandez, Susan L. Friend, CPA, Calvin E. Glidewell, Jr. and Jeff Goolsby, CPA, CGMA.

Major topics included:

- Orientation to health care accounting
- Alternative payment models
- Physician practice M & A transactions
- Accounting for software implementation
- Revenue cycles
- Recruitment and retention
- Robotic process automation

The keynote speaker on Thursday (4/25) was Aurelio M. Fernandez, President and CEO, Memorial Healthcare System in Ft Lauderdale, FL. Friday's (4/26) keynote was entitled Healthcare's Journey to the Future: This Isn't My Mother's Healthcare! And delivered by, Jaime Caldwell, President, South Florida Hospital & Healthcare Association based in Dania Beach, FL.

Premier Sponsors

Associates

- FHIcommunications
- PYA
- Fifth Third Bank
- CBIZ
- J.P. Morgan

Supporters

- ACHE
- F2 Healthcare
- Health Fund Solutions
- HFMA Florida Chapter
- KPMG
- Moore Stephens Lovelace
- Navigant
- Pinnacle Healthcare Consulting

To learn more about this annual program, please contact Diane Major.