Moderator:
Alexandru Visan, MD, MBA
University of Miami Dept of Anesthesiology & President Executive Cortex Consulting

As the Founder and CEO of Executive Cortex Consulting, Dr. Alexandru Visan is dedicated to the development and implementation of progressive healthcare solutions for modern medical practice, based on hybrid healthcare and business administration analytics.

As the healthcare industry rapidly transforms an unsustainable economic model, traditional Group Practices face formidable challenges. Coping with payers, government regulators, payment reform and technology demands leaves too little time for patients. And those clinging to traditional goals, strategies, structure and processes face a dim future. From immediate cash flow concerns to long-term capital budgets, Group Practices must elevate their financial acumen to prosper in the new health age.
