Women in Medicine Breakfast Panel Discussion

October 16, 2018 | Hollywood

Since 2014, the Healthcare Roundtable has participated in the celebration of Women in Medicine each autumn by showcasing some of South Florida's special female healthcare professionals. This year's provocative and timely panel discussion will highlight more remarkable women. They will share their unique stories of the challenges overcome and comment on the opportunities that lie ahead as women in medicine make their mark on the industry.
